The resources below will help you with your research. Don’t forget to cite your sources and copy your quotes using your Noodletools account:
http://www.noodletools.com/index.php

E-Reference Books

Gale Virtual Reference Center  this is an Electronic Library filled with E Reference Books, best place to start! Notice the citation information at the bottom of the page when you are searching.

Databases

When searching in databases use “key words” not phrases or sentences. Use words like “Vietnam Vets and Families”, “Post Traumatic Stress and War" do not type in whole sentences. It’s not like searching the web.

The “In Context" Databases below provide comprehensive access to magazines, journals, reference books, and multimedia resources that focus on one topic.

World History In Context

U.S. History in Context

Science In Context