The resources below will help you with the research for this project. Remember that ALL resources must be cited using MLA format. Easybib is a free Automatic Bibliography and Citation Maker that can help you create your work cite page.

E-books - found on the school library website

Gale Virtual Reference Library - Search using Topic words such as Law and Supreme Court

Databases - found on the school library website

Gale Criminal Justice Collection - What is Criminal Justice Collection? Whether studying to become a lawyer or law enforcement officer, paralegal, or for a career in Homeland Security, this collection rises to the challenge. Users will have access to hundreds of full-text journals.

US History in Context – U.S. History in Context delivers comprehensive, contextual, media-rich search results from the most extensive online collection of historical information available today.

Websites

Anatomy of a Murder: A Trip through Our Nation's Legal Justice System.
http://library.thinkquest.org/2760/

National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS) is a federally funded resource offering justice and drug-related information to support research, policy, and program development worldwide.
https://www.ncjrs.gov/whatsncjrs.html

Cornell Law School's Legal Information Institute
This site is useful for researching your legal issues. The site contains many "Law About" topic entries with general background information on different legal subjects and a few "Topical Libraries" on issues such as social security and legal ethics. The site is especially useful for searching for United States Supreme Court opinions, Federal Circuit court opinions, and the United States Code.
http://www.law.cornell.edu/

FindLaw This site contains many subject guides to specific areas of law, links for finding lawyers, and law related news and information. The site is a product of Thomson/West, a legal publishing company.
http://www.findlaw.com/

Nolo.com Self-help law publisher site. Contains a useful law encyclopedia and dictionary geared toward the non-attorney.
http://www.nolo.com/dictionary
landmarkcases.org - Street Law, Inc. developed landmarkcases.org in 2002, with funding from the Supreme Court Historical Society to provide teachers with a full range of resources and activities to support the teaching of landmark Supreme Court cases.  http://www.streetlaw.org/en/landmark/home

Supreme Court Historical Society - The Society, a private non-profit organization, is dedicated to the collection and preservation of the history of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Web Guide to U.S. Supreme Court Research

A selection of annotated links to the most reliable, substantive sites for U.S. Supreme Court research. The sites mentioned here focus predominantly on information that is freely, or inexpensively, available on the Internet.

Books in the School Library

Search the school's library for books using the electronic catalog Destiny. Use search terms such as; Law, Justice, and Supreme Court

Mapp v. Ohio
367 U.S. 643 (1961)

Arizona v. Hicks
480 U.S. 321 (1987)

Terry v. Ohio
392 U.S. 1 (1968)

Chimel v. California
395 U.S. 752 (1969)

United States v. Leon

Gideon v. Wainright
372 U.S. 335 (1963)

Escobedo v. Illinois
378 U.S. 478 (1964)

Miranda v. Arizona
384 U.S. 436 (1966)

Hiibel v. Nevada